

Lucy A DiSabato

June 17, 1933 - May 2, 2021

Lucille Alice DiSabato, sibling of 9, was born on June 17, 1933 in Brooklyn, New York. She is survived by her two daughters, Laura Allen and Theresa Mordarski, and four grandchildren, Nicole Mordarski, Melinda Mordarski, Theresa Allen and Richie Allen Jr. Beloved by many, she will be deeply missed. She resided at Bayside Manor on Laurel Avenue where in her time there she was affectionately referred to as The Mayor of the Unit and especially enjoyed the music and bus trips. She passed away on May 2, 2021 with family at her side. She always had a love for music and was called home while listening to Unchained Melody, the song that played at her wedding. She has gone to join her husband, Steve DiSabato in Heaven and we are sure they will both continue to watch over all of their loved ones. The Funeral will be held on May 5, 2021 at 10:00 am at St. Ann Roman Catholic Church 311 Carr Ave., Keansburg, NJ 07734. In lieu of flowers please share a fond memory of Lucy or do a random act of kindness for someone, to spread Lucy's love and spirit.

Cemetery

Woodbridge Memorial Gardens

Woodbridge, NJ,

Events

MAY 5 Funeral Mass 10:00AM
St. Ann's RC Church
311 Carr Avenue, Keansburg, NJ, US

MAY 5 Private Family Graveside Service
Woodbridge Memorial Gardens
Woodbridge, NJ, US

Comments

“ My Aunt Lucy was a beautiful person.

As a young adult she took care of her mother, who suffered from severe rheumatoid arthritis and other ailments.

Their apartment at 371 7th Street in Brooklyn was full of love and the meeting place for my mom, three siblings, and myself for a delicious Sunday dinner. Sometimes other cousins and their parents would join us.

At Christmas there was always a wonderful gift from her underneath our Christmas tree.

She will be sorely missed by all.

Rosalie Schoeller

Rosalie Schoeller - May 04 at 03:30 PM