“ Because I moved out of Jersey , married, and lived most of my life in the Midwest , the number of times that my wife and I could get together with Pat and Dave was always too few. We would catch up, share dreams, and goals. All the occasions seemed exceptional. However as I think back the feature that stands above them all is the way Pat could make you feel like you’ve just come home. The warm senses of ease and continuity were so natural I will not forget and always treasure that.

“ I will always remember that Pat and Dave came to our wedding in 1967 at Purdue University. That was back in the day when none of us had any money, so flying from New Jersey to Indiana was a big deal for them. I was so grateful that they were willing to come, along with Chris and Jimmy Feuker. We had a very small wedding party, so having Richard’s friends come all that way to celebrate with us was such a wonderful thing. Thanks Pat, for being there for us! I also have a wonderful memory of Pat and Dave stopping by to visit us in Milwaukee when we were getting ready to retire in the early 2000’s. They were driving cross-country, and made a detour to visit us. It was so great to visit with them and share lots of memories. I didn’t get to see Pat very often, but it was always such a pleasure to talk to her. I remember her great smile! Thanks Pat, for being one of my long-distance friends for so many years.
