

Bernard E. Meixner

May 24, 2013 - July 25, 2013

Bernard E. Meixner, 75, of Keansburg, died Thursday, July 25, 2013 in Bayshore Community Hospital, Holmdel.

He was born May 24, 1938 in Dumont, NJ, and has lived in Keansburg since 1969. He worked as a Pipe Fitter for United Association of Steamfitters Local 475 in Newark.

Surviving are his wife, Diane Meixner; daughter & son-in-law, Cory & Joseph Sherman of Keansburg; daughter & son-in-law, Staci & Brian Quilban of Laurence Harbor; 2 grandsons, Curtis & Brian; great-granddaughter, Elena; brother, Arthur Meixner; and a sister, Dorothy Basdan.

Friends will be received 5-8 P.M. Tuesday, July 30 at the Laurel Funeral Home, 201 Laurel Ave., West Keansburg, NJ 07734. For further information and condolences, visit www.laurelfuneralhome.net.

Tribute Wall

AS

“ ANTHONY SHERMAN lit a candle in memory of Bernard E. Meixner

ANTHONY SHERMAN - July 28, 2013 at 10:22 AM

AS

So sorry too hear. our prayers go out to the family. He was a great man and will truly be missed..

ANTHONY SHERMAN - July 28, 2013 at 10:29 AM

HN

Sorry about his passing. I knew him in at Fort Dix Summer 1961. He made a remark to me about my body which was mean and extremely disrespectful. All I wanted to do was to fill my military obligation and not be humiliated by a "fellow brother". I have never forgiven him, until now. I wish I could have confronted him in person but that was not to be. R.I.P. Bernard.

Herbert F. Narsis
The Colony, Tx. 75056
(214) 281-6838

herbert narsis - May 23, 2015 at 04:36 PM