“ Christian will be in my heart and prayers, as will his parents. I knew Christian as a student who I had in class on just a few occasions, as a substitute teacher at Raritan High School. He was kind, respectful and sweet and attentive to me, and as a substitute teacher, who does not always get that kind of behavior, he was so memorable. God Bless the Marchena family with the sure hope that they will be together again as a family. Barbara Zeller

It seems like just the other day Christian was sitting at my desk and we were checking him out as a senior getting ready for graduation. What a wonderful young man, full of so much promise, kindness, and love for others. I'm sure on the football field he did his job at being rough and ready, but in life, he always appeared to me as a gentle soul, working hard in his courses to fulfill his dreams. I will miss you very much Christian ... Debbie Nelson, Academic Advisor, Electrical and Computer Engineering, University of Delaware

As a friend of the family I saw Christian on several occasions throughout his life. I didn't know him well, but I heard a lot about him from his uncle, Carlos. He always spoke of both Christian and Marielle with love and pride. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.
