

David Lee Chivers

August 11, 1962 - July 10, 2020

David Lee Chivers, 57, Hazlet N.J. died on July 10, 2020 at Robert Woods Johnson Hospital, New Brunswick N.J. as the result of an accident. David was born on August 11, 1962 in Scranton PA. His parents are Darwin and Peggy Chivers. David worked as a custodian for Middlesex County College for many years. David loved motorcycles, cars, rock and roll music and dogs, and, of course, his family. David is survived by his wife Carol Campbell-Chivers, his former wife Lisa Kelleman of Easton PA, his three children, Tina Chivers, Allentown Pa, Stacy Chivers, Easton PA. and David Chivers Jr, Easton Pa. He is also survived by his father Darwin Chivers, Hubert NC, his brother Darwin James Chivers, Beaver creek OH, and his brother John Chivers, Hubert NC, and numerous grandchildren. Predeceased are his former girlfriend Laura Siminsky, his mother, Peggy Chivers and his youngest brother Mark Chivers. David will be missed dearly. He will be cremated with a service at a later date due to the COVID-19 epidemic. Arrangements are being handled by the Laurel Funeral Home in Hazlet N.J.

Tribute Wall

RI

“ David was a great person, he was always someone that had a great personality, he was a great co-worker. David was always friendly to everyone. We will miss David.
God bless him..

Ricky - August 06, 2020 at 01:50 PM

CC

“ Thank you baby for making me happy in all ways making me laugh I love you will always miss you in my heart and on my mind everyday

Carol Campbell-Chivers - July 16, 2020 at 08:19 AM