“ When I first met Diana we were co worker at Merry Maids. We became worker partners, an on the first we day we started talk we found out that that she knew my older brother Danny Cavanagh, that was how friendships started. Diana was such a good hearted person, there was nothing she wouldn't do for you. She loved her daughters an grandson with all her heart. She will missed an I will miss my friend. Now all her pain gone an she can continue to watch over her girls an grandsons. Diana, I will miss your friendship. Love you my friend. Fly high with Angels.

“ Diana and I shared Julain as a grandson. I will treasure most the love in her eyes for him, the big smile she had when speaking of him and the amazing love she had for my son Jerell..loving him as her own. Thank you Diana for opening your heart to Jerell and giving him that one of a kind mother-in-love embrace...I will make sure he knows he STILL has 2 grandmothers...because you will always be in our hearts...Rest In Paradise My Sweet Diana.

“ My name is Bunny Heymach. I baby sat Diane and her siblings for several years when they were small. I have fond memories from that. She was such a sweet girl. I remember one time her hanging over the sofa and asking me to please tell her brother Georgie to please let her play with a certain toy. I solved it by playing with them together with that toy:) I would let them all play and kinda mess the house up til it was time for mommy and daddy to come back home and then I would say...okay kids, clean up time...and they would put all their toys away and make things tidy again:)....it was fun baby sitting her and her siblings...fond memories. So sorry she is gone now at a young age. My sincere condolences to all who knew and loved her.
