

Dio J Vallone

March 5, 1966 - January 21, 2020

Dio J. Vallone

Age 53 Bensalem PA

Dio passed away Monday January 20, he grew up in Keansburg and followed his dream to be a horseman. His love for horses lead him to travel all over the country. His accomplishments included horse trainer, owner and breeder.

Horse racing was his life, some of his career highlights included attending the Kentucky Derby and selling a horse at a horse sale in California. He was a wonderful friend to many and had a carefree personality.

Dio was predeceased by his mother, Margie Marino Vallone, father, Peter Vallone Sr., and his brother, Joseph Vallone. He is survived by Angela Vallone Schweitzer of Boynton Beach, Fla., Carmen Linda Vallone of Delray Beach, Fla., Peter and Marlene Vallone of Lincroft, NJ; and brother Michael Vallone of Tampa Florida, nephew Peter Vallone 3rd of Maryland and niece Angel Vallone of Arizona.

Visitation and service is arranged for Saturday, January 25th from 1 to 4pm at Laurel Funeral Home, 201 Laurel Ave., West Keansburg.

“ For many months in 2019, Dio talked about coming to Tampa with us for the winter. It didn't work out and he stayed behind in PA. Last night, in Florida, I worked with an animal communicator (think Theresa Caputo for horses) for a horse we have that is a bit of a puzzle. About 5 minutes into the reading, she said, "There's a male energy here from the other side. An ethnic looking person." I knew immediately it was Dio and she later confirmed when I sent her a picture of him. She went on to say that he was "in the pictures" I sent of the horse, which made sense since he had hoped to be here anyway. He said he was happy where he was and happy to be free of the spinning, chaotic world." He also said, he loved what he did, which I agreed with wholeheartedly. One of the last things she mentioned is that he was there with a little boy. While that meant nothing to me, I am sharing in the hopes that it brings comfort to someone in the family.

Dio was great fun to be around. We enjoyed him immensely. May he rest in peace.

Dio, I'm not sure what it meant but you came into a dream I had two weeks ago. It has been 35 years since we saw each other last. I will always remember our times as crazy kids playing cards and causing trouble. Thank you for the visit my friend. Say hello to everyone for me! Enjoy those Ponies:)
