“ You and I go way, way back, Edmund. Your dear brother, Tom, introduced me to you, his little brother, and your parents, dear Marcella and Max, on Tom's 15th birthday, August 22nd, 1946. You told me what to order from the menu as it was the first time I had ever eaten in a Chinese restaurant. When Tom & I got engaged on Christmas, 1950, you told me you were happy to finally have a sister. We've shared many memories both happy and sad through all these many years. I will always remember our last telephone conversation a few weeks ago - you said, "I love you, Mim." and I answered, "I love you, too, Edmund!" Rest In Peace, Little Brother. When you see Tom, please give him a big hug from me! Love, Mimi
