“ Sitting here as I talk to Allie About u is heartbreaking knowing that you will never just pop up at the house at 10 o'clock at night n scare the crap out of us or be there all the times I have asked you to help me fix my POS car...lol the times we would sit for hours after u got a hot dog just making us laugh ...You have always try to help everyone u could ...It just saddens me that we won't physically ever get to hear Your pretend Spanish voice when u call ...or when u pick up ur phone omg u have touched so many lives of people you barley even knew ..So for now it's not just a good-bye but "See ya later" ❤️

“ My beautiful uncle.... I am so grateful we got to hang out as much as we did during your last week here, physically, with us. Thank you for all of the memories and laughs Rock! You were truly one of a kind and a piece of you lives on, in each and every one of us! I love you and miss you terribly. My heart is shattered. I'm still waiting to hear your car pull up, system bumpin' and waiting for you to walk up and say, "Yo, yo! Wuttup girl?!" I wish we could take a ride and listen to some Sabbath, sing every word and play the air guitar together! I just made a playlist of all the songs we had listened to the last few times we hung out which was just a few days before you left us. You will never ever be forgotten Unc. This still feels like a nightmare I am waiting to wake up from. I'm unsure how I'm supposed to accept the fact that I will never hear your voice and laugh or see your smile, ever again, especially when you were just sitting right next to me!!! I hope you are resting easy and that you are finally at peace. Please give Nanny a hug and kiss for me. Until we meet again I love you and miss you with all of my heart and soul... Thank you for being you! Your memory will live on forever! Love always, Laurie Girl XoXoXo

What great picture.. idk what to say it's a truly a sad time for many.. Rocky I'll always remember how we laughed when I came to visit also the ride to train .. just so you know it meant the world to me the conversation was funny and told me to smarten up. Not those words but it's what you meant 😞 A truly great man and whoever got to know him was your privilege.. R. I. P. Now you're with Mommy and at peace..
