

Ethel Marie Landi

November 14, 1927 - February 25, 2018

90 year old. Ethel Marie Landi, lovingly known as “aunt Ecky“ and her husband Albert (“Uncle Albie” - deceased in 1998) were Keansburg icons for over 50 years.

Ethel grow up in New York City “Hell’s Kitchen” and had all the fiesty charm of a “Westie “. That’s where she met her Albie, the love of her life. She was strong willed, charismatic and well known in the Keansburg schools where she worked as a chef.

Together they hosted backyard Italian feasts for generations of families. They remain Ecky and Uncle to many who grew up with them and now have children of their own.

Raymond Mulhern is one that has a special place in Aunt Ecky’s heart for all his acts of love and kindness. His sister Patricia O’Connor made many midnight runs with Ecky to the emergency room. Ecky and her special friend Pat Woods attempted to re-live their 1950’s bungalow days forever! Pat’s children Billy, Tara and Donna always invited her to holiday and family events.

Special thanks to her best friend Gloria Torterelli who was devoted to assisting her with all things big and small. Her daughters Lisa and Annette were involved with far too many projects to name!

Thank you to the nurses and all staff at Bayside Manor for their wonderful care. She also received excellent care at Arnold Walter and Riverview Medical Center. Thank you for treating her with dignity and respect.

Ethel is survived by her sister Joan Swanson, her nephew and godson Anthony and his wife Maritza, and her niece Barbara, who reports the strong influence that Ecky had on her femininity and independent spirit growing up.

Ecky, from all of us we love you and miss you already. Please pray for us in heaven.
