

Genevieve Cordi

December 10, 1938 - December 3, 2020

Genevieve (Matto) Cordi, 81, of Keansburg, New Jersey, passed away on Thursday, December 3, 2020. Genevieve was born December 10, 1938, in Newark, New Jersey to the late Louis and Viola Matto. Genevieve was a graduate of Barringer High School. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great grandmother - always putting family and friends above herself. Genevieve was a loving, caring, generous woman, and was known as a spit fire to anyone who knew her. Always telling it like it is! She will be missed, and never forgotten.

Genevieve was preceded by her husband, Giorgio Cordi and her son, Louis C. Cordi. She is survived by her son, George and his wife Janice, her daughter Georgina and her husband James Negro, her daughter in law AnnMarie, her brother Louis "Jr" Matto, Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins and Friends.

Thank you for all your prayers during this sad time. Genevieve's wishes were to only have a church mass. It is set for Wednesday, December 9, 2020 at Saint Ann's Church, 311 Carr Avenue, Keansburg New Jersey. You will need to start gathering there at 9:15am.

Please do not feel bad if you can not make it. We completely understand due to the safety for all of our loved ones. If you can not make it, please think of her at that time. Say a prayer, or just do something nice in her honor that day.

“ We grew up in the same house with Aunt Genevieve Uncle Georgie, Georgina and "little" Georgie. She always had the house smelling so good with her delicious cakes and pies and other baked stuff. So good! We all went our separate ways but the memory of those days will never go away. We are all saddened with her loss and Louis too. We will catch up in heaven! Rest in peace Aunt Genevieve and may Perpetual light shine upon you.
