“ I met Micki when I was 19 yrs old. She was the first friend I met when I moved to N.J. we became best friends right from the start. Spent almost everyday together. I watch her children grow up to be wonderful adults. We had shared the good times and the bad times, but most of all, the laughs we had together and always there for each other. even when I moved to Pgh. We would pick up where we left off. My heart is so saddened with the lost of my Best friend. I am so glad I saw her July 2nd at my mom's 90th birthday. A day I will cherish. Good bye my friend until we meet again. My thoughts and prayers are with her family that love her so much. Another angel enters heaven❤️❤️

“ What to say, Mickey (Or Mrs Marshall as I always called her) Was my second mother. A better, nicer, kinder or big hearted person you will never find. She may never know the influence she made on me. It was for my fortune to know her. Her passing greatly diminishes us all. She will be missed. Philip B, Pellgrino Jr,

“ I worked with Genevieve for many years at Shamrock. She was a quiet pleasant woman until she got to know you, then watch out..lol she always had a smile for people. Her laugh could brighten the darkest of days. Honey you have earned your wings many many times over, take those wings and fly..soar through the clouds. Heaven has gained another angel.
