“ I remember going bowling one night with George in Jersey City & after bowling we went to his car, a relatively new Ford (maybe a 1955, the one he had when he was in service). It was covered in snow & ice. I went to clean off the front window on the car & pulled the frozen windshield wiper right off the car. George took it in stride. After cleaning the windows on the car, I went to get in the passenger side of the car & pulled the frozen push button door handle right off the door. George was George & smiled & laughed. I have known George since I was a teenager, he was my brother Kim's long time friend & a friend to my family. He took my sister Lydia to her high school prom as a friend just so she wouldn't miss it. Such a Great Guy.
