“ I dreamed we were working together again so I thought I'd look you up. Sorry I waited so long. Larry was a great guy. Loved his family and would do anything for a friend. One of the most naturally talented mechanics I've ever known. What he lacked in formal education he more than made up for with mechanical aptitude and experience. Oh and we did laugh! I mean hard! I think we found something to laugh about every day!

“ Larry was one of the best men I've had ever met. He loved fixing anything and everything. His curiosity always got the better of him. If he said he'd look at your car tomorrow, you can bet he looked at 20 minutes later. He was great, honest and fair mechanic, and man. He always had a positive outlook. He will be very...deeply missed.

“ My 2nd dad (Pop Pop Larry) to my children, you were taken way too soon. I will miss you screaming my name every time I walk into the driveway or when you knew I was one The phone. I will miss that infectious laugh and your smile. You treated me like one of your own. You have forever left an imprint on my heart. I am so blessed to have known you and to call you family.
