“ May,

I never had a chance to say Good Bye, and I will not now. Only so long. Thanks for always being so good to my son and thanks for some of the laughs we had and some of the fun times. You will be missed.

May God Bless and may you have eternal rest. You are a new shining star in the sky

We love you,

Jill McCloud

“ May,

Although I never had a chance to say good bye, I will not say Good Bye now, but so long, until someday when we shall meet again. You will be missed until then. Thank you May for always being good to my son, thanks for your laughter and some of your stories. So again, it not goodbye, just so long...

May you be in peace and have eternal rest. God Bless.
