March 25, 1912 - April 29, 2019

On Tuesday, April 30th 2019, Nancy Scott went home to be with her Lord and Savior at the tremendous age of 107. Nancy was born on March 25, 1912 in Orange, NJ before becoming a life long resident of Keansburg, NJ, where she became a seamstress for Komars for many years. Nancy was preceded in death by her husband Charles Scott and her two sons Charles and David Scott. She is survived by her youngest son Peter Scott and his spouse Rudy Bliss of Fort Myers, FL, along with her daughter-in-law Barbara Scott of Colorado. Nancy is also leaving behind a substantial family legacy including grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. She spread as much love into the world as she did flour in the kitchen when she was baking or cooking. Although we can't name every person she has touched in her impressively strong, 107 years of healthy living- we do know that the world was truly blessed to have her here. She was a strong women with a sharp mind and a kind and loving soul. Nancy's extraordinary strength will always be an inspiration to us all. She will be celebrated and cherished in our hearts forever.
