“ Although I never got to meet you, or hear you cute coos' I am still amazed at how beautiful you were. Your life was cut short but you gave a gift so magical to your mother, grandmother and great grandmother. You filled their life with joy and smiles for two magical months. I pray through this tough time you guide them through life. You never leave their side and smile upon them in their darkest day. To Amanda, I am so sorry you have to face this sort of pain. No words I ever say will be enough. Just know your daughter will follow you throughout your life, guiding you. You will never be alone
