“ I attended Camden Street School, Newark, NJ with Pat Mata. I have not seen her since we completed sixth grade. I remember her as being independent, athletic, a swift runner and a tough competitor. My deepest condolences to the Mata family and to all of Pat's family and friends.

“ To the Mata family, My heartfelt sympathy to you on the loss of Patty. I don't know if you remember me, Margie Volk (my Dad and Mom George & Charlotte) my dad was a policeman. But I have memories of Patty and Betty and your Mom Hazel. I learned awhile back your Mom passed - and felt sadden I did not know at the time. When I learn I found and tried via message to Betty on FB but I know that sometimes that does not go through. I wish I could attend the wake but will be in New York babysitting my grand-daughter. I still can remember years ago when my Mom was still alive just stopping by and visiting your Mom & Patty well over 20 years ago. Please feel free to contact me via FB or my e-mail twoeaglesmom@verizon.net

My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Margie Volk Konrad
