

Raymond R. Knott

June 8, 1953 - April 20, 2020

Raymond R. Knott Jr. 06/08/1953-04/20/20 was born on base in Stuttgart, Germany and raised in Middletown, NJ. He was a graduate of Middletown High School. He was employed at IFF as a senior mechanic for 40 years. He was able to enjoy almost 7 years of retirement.

Raymond was predeceased by his sister Martha O' Neill, his Father Raymond R. Knott Sr. and his mother Maria Ramona Knott.

Surviving are his devoted wife of almost 35 years, Susan Knott, his daughter Amy Brogus and her husband Rob of Middletown, two sons Randy and Stephen Knott of Atlantic Highlands, his two beloved grandchildren Daniel and Megan Brogus, a sister Theresa Corton and her husband Ed of Florida. Last but not least his favorite baby. His 1964 Chevelle Super Sport. No, She's not for sale so don't come knocking. He also leaves behind many nephews, nieces and close friends.

Raymond enjoyed going to the VFW post 4303 and was a member of the Goodfellows club of Keansburg. He loved his garage, The United States of America, Donald Trump and the second amendment. There was nothing that he could not fix or build.

At a time when we need our friends and family the most, we are forced to hold a small private funeral. When circumstances allow we will have a memorial service.
