

Richard C. Cook

October 15, 1949 - September 27, 2021

Richard Calvin Cook, 71, of Hazlet, New Jersey passed away unexpectedly on September 27th. He was born in 1949 in Bronx, New York. Richard served in the U.S army during the Vietnam era as a Marksman.

Richard originally lived in Neptune City, where he worked as a Roofer for over 35 years while raising his loving daughter Ashley. Later he moved to Keansburg to be closer to his immediate family.

Richard was a great man, but an even better father. If you asked Richard what his greatest accomplishment was he wouldn't say a career, or legacy. It was being the best father any child could asked for.

He was predeceased by his birth mother Catherine, his loving and caring parents Thomas Sr and Anna Cook, sister Alice and brother Thomas. Survived is his loving and caring daughter Ashley, his sisters Maryella and Karen. Along with many nieces, nephews, and loyal friends.

“ Dearest Ashley....I knew your Dad for many many years,and truly looked up to him. Richie was an AWESOME and AMAZING man, who will hold a very special place in my heart💔 And Richie....May you fly high and fly free,and may the good Lord hold you safely in the palm of His hand....please give my love to my parents,and to all of our friends and family that was at the Gates of Heaven, to greet you,and welcome you home, to God's home.... Until we meet again....
