

Richard W. Cumiskey

May 24, 1943 - March 8, 2019

Richard W. Cumiskey, known affectionately by all as "Dickey," passed away at Bayshore Medical Center surrounded by his family, at age 75. His family finds some peace in the thought of him joining his beloved wife of 43 years, Linda Cumiskey, who passed away in 2009.

During his lifetime, Dickey was a devoted father, loving uncle, supportive brother, and doting grandfather. He proudly served in the U.S. army as a medic, acted as an administrator for the Bayshore Moose Lodge, was a life member of New Point Fire Department, and was an active member of Post 273 of the American Legion.

Continuing to celebrate Dickey's memory are his sons Michael Rowe and Richard Rowe, along with his daughter-in-law Margaret Rowe. He is also survived by his sister Vera Antonucci and brothers Robert and John Cumiskey. Dickey has eight grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, as well as, many loving nieces and nephews.

Dickey will be reuniting with his beloved family who passed on, including his mother Vera Foster, step-father Carl Foster, father Thomas Cumiskey, his brothers Thomas Cumiskey Jr. and Harry Cumiskey, as well as, his sisters Jacqueline Meehan, Francis Antonucci, and Louise Foster.
