“ There is one particular thing that sticks in my mind. When Ron and I were just young kids, we used to take our rafts out into the ocean. We would sit there facing the waves and wait for the waves to crash into us. Eventually a large enough wave would come along and knock us off the rafts. We would roll around in the water and crash into the sand. When we finally surfaced we would giggle and climb back on the rafts and wait for another wave. Somehow we thought this was fun. What were we thinking?!! I have many more memories of Ron but this was a special one. Rest In Peace my beloved brother.

Your loving sister Judi.

“ Dear Ron,

In our deepest sadness, I know we must hold onto light and love in missing you. I thought below poem fitting:~ Much love, your sister-in-law Noelle

*“When he shall die,
Take him and cut him out in little stars,
And he will make the face of heaven so fine
That all the world will be in love with night
And pay no worship to the garish sun.”*
