“Rosemary has been our neighbor at the Dunes in Keansburg since we moved here in 2006. Rose was always a happy lady. We shared many stories as our building was being renovated. Rose was always so proud of her grand children who would come to visit often. My sincere condolences to the family. Rose will be missed by all of her neighbors at the Dune! May she Rest in Peace in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ.

“My deepest sympathy to Rosie's family. She and I have worked at PNC many, many years. She was always happy, had a keen sense of humor, and we shared many laughs. She was so very proud of her girls and grandchildren - her eyes would just glisten when she spoke of them. Your hearts are hurting now and only time helps heal - her memories will always remain in your hearts and one day the memory of her will bring a smile to your face before tears. RIP Rosie - you will be deeply missed at PNC. JO Nazzaro (formerly Griffin)
