THOMAS EUGENE COOK, SR
AGE 89 Keansburg

Thomas Eugene Cook, Sr, 89, of Keansburg, NJ, passed away Monday night Jan 4, 2016 at Riverview Medical Center with his loving family by his side. He was born 1926 in Marshall, NC. He was the eldest of three siblings. Thomas served in the U.S. Navy as a Signalman during World War II.

He moved to the Bronx where he met the love of his life, Anna, whom he was married to for 58 years. They then resided in Keansburg for more than 50 years. He was a loving and protective father of his five children. Thomas & Anna owned Pizza City restaurant for 25 years. He was also employed by the U.S. Postal Service, where he retired at age 77 to care for his wife.

He was a parishioner of St. Ann's Church since 1964 where he later made his Baptism, Communion, and Confirmation all at the age of 80. He loved watching sports, westerns, and spending time with his wife and family. He enjoyed playing pinochle with his family and friends, as well as bingo.

He was predeceased by his wife Anna, his son Thomas Jr, and his sister Lois. He is survived by his children Alice, Richie, MaryElla, and Karen. Thomas was a proud grandpa of Dawn, Lisa, Roxanne, TomTom, Vinny Jr, Michael, Kayla, Marissa, Ashley, Amanda, Erica and Matthew. He was also a cherished great grandpa to Jessica, Carlos, Jazlyn, Stephanie and John. Thomas will never be forgotten and will be greatly missed by many.
