"THE WIND BENEATH MY WINGS"

THOMAS G FITZGERALD, loving brother and friend, I had no clue of what to expect when our older sister, ROSA LEE REED, embraced me and ushered me into her 'Circle of Lufe', but it truly has been amazinly awesome. My life has never been the same & has been absolutely marvelous.

My eulogy of you is filled with ultimate honor, victory, adoration & devotion. It was a priviledge to walk side by side with you in good, bad & indifferent times; a privilege only GOD ALMIGHTY can give. I will always cherish the memories of fun, sadness, joy & pain in health and in sickness. I can only hope that I was able to your pain andbyour battle with illness - easier & bearable.

You went ever so quietly for I belueve you yourself, knew perfectly that the day of the Lord had arrived. You traveled to & fro to say your goodbye ever so sweetly and lovingly. It's said that "death comes as a thief in the night"; but you dear brother defied death as you didn't live in darkness & emptiness. You lived life in broad daylight even in the darkest hour of your 'MIDNIGHT' ! You said your farewell for you chose to moonwalk in 'THE GLORY OF ALMIGHTY GOD'! Surely, death cannot be proud & "JUST BECAUSE GOD DAID IT". You discretely put on BREASTPLATE OF FAITH & LOVE; AND FOR AN HELMET, THE HOPE OF SALVATION, such is the Wird of God. You, my brother wore them both in royalty fit for a child of the Most High God. And now, that very same God has welcomed you home. He whispered in your ear, "WELL DONE MY SON, WELL DONE"! For the life you lived before all who knew you & loved you,the God of peace has SANCTIFIED YOU WHOLLY. I beseech God the Father praying thatvyour whole spirit, and soul & body - be PRESERVED BLANELESS unto the coming of our Lird Jesus Christ. Faithful & True is He that called home, Who also - will do it!

Now the time has come for me to bid you farewell, THOMAS G FITZGERALD. It's been a grand ole time for sure. May you cuddle in the Glory of His Bossom, wrap you tenderly in His loving kindness & His tender mercies; where you're hidden safely uner the shadow of His Wing; to 💕 you and to behold you as the 🍎 of His Eye

FOREVERMORE!!!

REST IN HEAVENLY PEACE MY BELOVED - BROTHER, FOR SURELY
