Thomas E. Pellegrino

January 6, 1952 - April 16, 2013

Thomas Pellegrino, 61, of West Keansburg, died Tuesday after a long illness. He was predeceased by his father Philip. He leaves behind his loving mother Marie, a sister Rosemarie, a brother Philip, a nephew Anthony and his wife Jill, a niece Heather, grand-nephews John, Joseph, and Anthony, and a grand-niece Elizabeth.

Tom was born in New York City. He moved with his family to West Keansburg in 1960. He attended St. Ann School, Raritan High School, and Brookdale Community College. It was there that he fostered his love for photography and eventually found his true calling, horses.

Tom could always be found at the backside of a race track. He started out as a hot walker, became an assistant trainer, clipped the horses, and most recently was an agent for horse transportation. His life was the track, and he followed the horses wherever they went.

Tom lived in Florida after he left New Jersey, and he was more at home there than any place else. He biked around the country, and always found time for fly fishing, whether it be from the shore, a boat, or a kayak. He rooted for the Yankees, and went to as many games as he could whenever he came "up north." And through all of his adventures, Tom always had his camera. He captured nature, still life, and of course horses.

Tom touched the hearts of family and friends and will be remembered for his free spirit and zest for life. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at St. Ann Church, Keansburg, NJ, Monday, April 22, 2013, at 10:15AM.

“ We miss you, dear friend. You are forever in our hearts and in our prayers.

*We seem to give them back to Thee, O God,
who gavest them first to us.
Yet as Thou didst not lose them in giving,
so do we not lose them by their return.
Not as the world giveth, givest Thou, O Lover of souls.
What Thou givest, Thou takest not away,
for what is Thine is ours also, if we are Thine.
And life is eternal and love is immortal,
and death is only a horizon,
and a horizon is nothing, save the limit of our sight.
Lift us up, strong Son of God, that we may see farther;
cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly;
draw us closer to Thyself that we may know ourselves to be nearer to our loved ones who are with Thee.
And while Thou dost prepare a place for us,
prepare us also for that happy place,
that where Thou are we may be also for evermore. Amen.
