

Violet Lunsmann

February 13, 1922 - July 2, 2017

Violet Lunsmann (nee Davies), 95, of Jersey City, NJ passed away peacefully on July 2, 2017. She was born in Norfolk, England in 1922. She was predeceased by her husband, John K.Lunsmann, her sister, Betty Revell and her brother, Eric Davies. She is survived by several nieces and nephews and many friends.

Violet was a member of the Women's Land Army in England during WWII. She was a homemaker, an accomplished seamstress and a volunteer at both her church and the Windmill Alliance in Bayonne for 20+ years.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, July 22, 2017 at 10 am at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 38 Duncan Ave, Jersey City, NJ. Burial will follow at Bayview Cemetery, Garfield Ave, Jersey City, NJ. Donations made be made in Violet's memory to the Windmill Alliance (memo note on check– Windmill Center), 141 Broadway, Bayonne, NJ07002.

Previous Events

Private Cremation

JUL 3 (ET)

Laurel Funeral Home
201 Laurel Ave
Hazlet Township, NJ 07734
(732) 787-0258

Memorial Service

JUL 22. 10:00 AM (ET)

St. Paul's Episcopal Church
Jersey City, NJ

Graveside Service

JUL 22. 11:15 AM (ET)

Bay View Cemetery
Jersey City, NJ

Tribute Wall

TS

“ After Pop's passing, Mom was also diagnosed with Alzheimer's. We found a wonderful place near all of our homes. It was nice but it wasn't really nice for Mom until Aunt Violet showed up. Grandma Gellatly (Mom's mom) was a very good friend of Aunt Violet's. It was kis met that the two should wind up Shari g dinner together.. Godspeed Aunt violet.pi

---

Thomas Simmons - July 09, 2017 at 04:22 PM