“ I will never forget Walter. He was like a 2nd father to me. We met at the gym about 10 years ago and became instant friends. We worked out together, we went to a Blue Claws game together, he welcomed me into his home, and he came to our home to visit. Most of all, I loved meeting him at Atlanta Bread for dinner with my son, Tyler. He loved his family and especially his grandsons. He was a wonderful, kind and gentle man and I will always remember him. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family at this difficult time. Love, Kathy, Stan & Tyler Luszik
